

Lord St John enjoyed his hours at sea on an anti-drug trafficking patrol. He is delighted that the Caruana government effectively has eliminated all drug and cigarette smuggling. However, he warns that it does take time for the altered image to percolate through to those who make the all important decisions as to which off shore centre should be used. The competition is fierce and a whiff of past financial scandal, takes many years before it is totally forgotten. But it is the